More Kansas Revolutions from Gov. Geary.

The Chicago Tribune says it is informed by "a Democrat of unquestioned faithfulness to his party, himself a Governor" (supposed to be Gov. Geary of Minnesota) that Gov. Geary is engaged in preparing from his diary, a history of events in Kansas during his administration, which will be given to the public in a short time. It is said that the facts to be disclosed in the forthcoming book, concerning the crimes committed by the pro-slavery party against the Free State settlers, are as horrible and startling as any of the "Black Republican lies" (to quote a favorite expression of Democratic editors) which have hitherto reached us from the territory. Among other things it will be stated that during a trip on a much frequented road, soon after his arrival in the territory, the Governor saw the bodies of twenty-five murdered Free State men! One was pinned to a tree by a bow-knife driven through his heart into the solid wood at his back, and on his breast was fastened a written warning to "Abolitionists!" Some were buried so imperfectly that their hands and arms protruded from the shallow graves. "Upon others," (says the Chicago paper) the nameless mutilations which characterize the ferocious joy of the Indian in the moment of victory, had been committed. Brutality seemed to have exhausted itself in insulting what among all civilized men, whether of friend or foe, are looked upon with respect—the bodies of the dead.

"Horrors on horrors heaped!" Remember, reader, this is the picture drawn by a Democratic Governor of the Territory—no hideous "Black Republican" or "freedom-shrieking" Abolitionist—but a believer in the doctrine of "Squatter Sovereignty" as contained in the Cincinnati Platform—a doctrine of whose benign practical workings in Kansas the Governor's disclosures furnish a sad and melancholy illustration. As corroborative of the statement of the Chicago paper above referred to, we notice a paragraph in our exchanges to the effect that Senator Wilson of Mass., in a speech made during the recent canvass in Connecticut, asserted it as a fact within his knowledge, that Gov. Geary, in one of his official dispatches to Washington, declared his conviction that "the persecutions of the early Christians were not more terrible than those of the Free State settlers of Kansas!"

Thus slowly but surely is the truth making its way to the public mind, and the dark and blood-stained record of the "crime against freedom" (as Chas. Sumner eloquently characterized it) which has been perpetrated in that ill-fated territory, is being dragged to the open light of day, where all may gaze upon its appalling revelations of wickedness. Well has it been said, that "Truth is mighty and will prevail." Editors and orators may strive to crush or conceal it, as many leaders of the Democratic party did in the last Presidential canvass, but at last, like murder, it "will out," and then, to the deceivers, who with false words or cunningly-devised phrases, lead the honest, justice-loving people astray! A day of terrible retribution is at hand, when they will call in vain upon the rocks and mountains to cover them.

Kansas Land Sales Postponed. The government has given notice that the time of holding the next great sales of Kansas lands, has been postponed as follows:

The sale of lands for the benefit of the Iowa Indians, will commence on the 3d day of June next, at Iowa Point, Kansas.

The sale for the benefit of the Weas, Kaskaskias, and other Indian tribes, will commence at Paola, Lykins county, Kansas, on the 24th day of June next.

The third sale, of the Delaware lands, will commence at Oawkee, on the 15th day of July next.

The quantity of lands included in the above sales is thus stated—Iowa, 95,000 acres; Weas, &c., 214,000 acres; Delaware, 345,000 acres—making in all 654,000 acres.

A FEARFUL SITUATION AND NARROW ESCAPE.—A man named E. C. Taylor, about 57 years of age, residing at West Winfield, Herkimer county, N. Y., fell into the rapids of Niagara river, below the Falls, on the 31st ult., and was carried some fifty rods below the suspension bridge, when he struck a large rock near the shore and managed to climb to the top of it, which was out of the water. He was soon discovered, and after several hours of painful suspense to the spectators was provisionally rescued from his perilous position, by means of a rope-ladder 300 feet long, let down from the top of the overhanging and precipitous bank of the river. Three brave fellows, Willard J. Coburn, Anthony Shiley and Nora Crane, risked their lives by going down the ladder and assisting the unfortunate man to ascend. Their names should be published in all the newspapers of the land, in remembrance of their noble and self-forgetting heroism.

No Slavery in Ohio. The Legislature, among its last acts, passed a law making it a penitentiary offense to hold any person as a slave in Ohio, or to undertake to carry away from the State as a slave, any person of color. United States officers, acting in their official capacity under the Fugitive Slave Law, are excepted from the operation of the statute, which is designed to prevent the application of the Dred Scott decision to Ohio.

Resolutions were also adopted by a large majority in both Houses, declaring it to be the duty of Congress to use all constitutional power to prevent the increase of slavery, and that the principles of the Ordinance of 37 prohibiting slavery, ought to be applied to all the Territories. Also requesting our Senators and Representatives in Congress to vote against the admission of any new State unless slavery is excluded by its Constitution.

Pennsylvania. An intelligent gentleman who has been in Pennsylvania since the Presidential election, tells us that while there he conversed with numbers of Democrats, who said that they voted for Mr. Buchanan solely because their party leaders assured them that it would be the policy of his administration to make Kansas a Free State. They confirmed Mr. Hale's assertion in the Senate, that the Democratic banners in the old Keystone were blazoned with the motto of "Back, Breck and Free Kansas!" One of these supporters of "Old Buck" said that his mind was just upon a balance whether to vote for him or Fremont, and was only decided in favor of the former by the representations made to him by his strong Free Kansas proclivities. He said he had been watching the course of events under Mr. Buchanan's administration, and he began to suspect that he had been deluded in regard to his sentiments on the Kansas question, and if he became convinced that his suspicions were well founded, he would no longer act with his old party. This was before the Dred Scott decision of the Supreme Court, and before Gov. Geary resigned and made his startling exposure of the transactions in Kansas and his treatment by the administration. It was also before Mr. Buchanan's virtual refusal to sustain Geary, and his appointment of a Southern Governor to succeed him, followed by the bestowal of sundry fat offices in the Territory upon well known "Border Ruffian" leaders. With the additional light shed upon his mental vision by all these occurrences, we may reasonably infer that the suspicions of our honest, freedom-loving Buchanan Democrats of Pennsylvania have ere this ripened into conviction, and that his vote will most probably be given next Fall to aid in electing that staunch Republican, DAVID WILMOT, to the gubernatorial chair.

We believe there are thousands of other Democrats like him, not only in Pennsylvania, but in Ohio, Indiana and throughout all the Free States, who are waking up at last to the truth, that their party is hopelessly bound to the slavery-extending policy of its Southern allies, who claim the right to dictate their own terms to the party, in consideration of their having for years furnished the votes which have enabled it to triumph, and which, in the last Presidential contest, alone saved it from total and overwhelming defeat.

Colonel Fremont. The Albany Statesman says: "Col. Fremont has acted like a very sensible man since his recent political defeat. He has to all appearance dismissed the affair from his mind, and has sat quietly down to earn a literary reputation by writing a record of his 'Exploring Expeditions.' The work is nearly complete, and will be published by Childs & Peterson, of Philadelphia. The book will be gotten up in a fine style, illustrated by the same artists who were engaged on Dr. Kane's 'Arctic Explorations,' and will form a fit companion to that admirable work."

The majority of WISCONSIN, the Emancipation candidate for Mayor of St. Louis, over his nullifier opponent, is one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six votes, and only lacks one hundred and two votes of being equal to the combined Know Nothing and Administration vote.

The New Orleans Delta says that "Mr. Buchanan has schemed for fifty years, but always for the same solitary individual—himself!" and characterizes him as a political miscreant, who has nothing to propose, but is constantly waiting for "something to turn up."

Later from Kansas. QUINDORA, K. T., April 22. Secretary Stanton publishes an address to the people of Kansas in the Lecompton Union. He says the Administration recognizes the authority of the Territorial Legislature, the validity of the Territorial laws, and especially recognizes the act providing for a Constitutional Convention, presuming that the Convention will submit the vital question of the domestic institutions of the State to a subsequent vote of the people, and thinks that Congress will admit the State immediately. He recommends a general amnesty for past enemies and prosecutions. He expects Governor Walker to arrive in May.

Matters about Home.

APPRENTICE WANTED! An active, intelligent Boy, from 15 to 18 years of age, of good moral habits, will be taken as an Apprentice to the Printing Business, at this office.

Notice. Hon. ARNOLD SMITH, the State Commissioner of Schools, will deliver a Lecture in Hillsborough on Tuesday Evening next, the 5th of May. He is desirous of meeting, on that occasion, with all School Officers, Teachers, and Friends of Education, who may find it convenient to attend.

We are pleased to learn that our friend, Mr. JAMES JOHNSON, formerly of Lynchburg, and for sometime past the energetic and efficient Freight Agent of the Hillsborough and M. & C. railroads at Loveland, has received the appointment of General Freight Agent of the latter road at Marietta, and will enter upon his duties on the 1st proximo. This road is fortunate in securing the services of a gentleman so well qualified for the arduous and responsible position. As one of his best of friends, we wish him health and prosperity in his new location.

The Druid Family. The "Druid Family," whose first concert in this place is announced for Tomorrow (Friday) Evening, at the Court House, are highly spoken of by the papers of all the cities and towns in which they have performed. In addition to its novelty, their music is recommended as scientific and beautiful, and will no doubt afford an agreeable entertainment. The Mayville Eagle says of their first concert in that city: "The music on the Or Harmon was delightful, while Little Jamie's Family and Comic Medleys must be heard to form an idea of its merits."

Plows.—To those of our farmers who are not already familiar with the superior quality of the Plows manufactured by Messrs. GARRETT & COTTMAN of Cincinnati, we take pleasure in recommending them, as among the best in use. A great many of these Plows have been brought into this county during the last few years, and we have never heard of an instance where they failed to give entire satisfaction. D. MILLER & SON are the agents in this place, and J. WATSON & Co. in Greenfield.

CARRIAGES.—Those who intend buying carriages in Cincinnati, should not fail to visit the manufactory of MILLER & SONS, whose card will be found in our advertising columns. They are the oldest carriage manufacturers in the city, and have a fine assortment constantly on hand.

CARPETS.—The best place to buy carpets, tapestry, &c., in Cincinnati, is the old-established house of J. C. RINGWALT & Co., on Main, between Fourth and Fifth streets. Their sale-rooms are filled with a heavy stock of Carpets, comprising the cheapest as well as the most costly fabrics from the looms of Turkey. Visitors are waited upon with the greatest politeness by the affable proprietors and clerks, whether they buy or not, and we advise our lady friends visiting the city to call and gratify their curiosity by looking at the beautiful display of goods. See card in another column.

WINDOW SHADES.—We can recommend all who want goods of this kind to go to the establishment of M. SAWYER & Co., whose stock is not surpassed by any other house in Cincinnati. See card, and give them a call.

ADULTERATED LIQUORS.—The Legislature lately passed a good law, to prohibit the use of strychnine and other poisons in the manufacture of liquors, which is said to be a common practice of late years. The law requires every manufacturer of liquors to brand the canister or other vessel containing it, with his name, and the words, "Containing no poisonous drug or other adulterated poison," and to certify the same fact to the purchaser in all cases. Any manufacturer or vendor found in possession of liquors in violation of the law, is subject to a fine not exceeding $100 for every canister, barrel, &c., and imprisonment from two to six months in the county jail. The Prosecuting Attorney is required to have the liquors destroyed in a public place.

The law is now in force, and violators of its provisions will see the risk they run by continuing to disregard it.

ANOTHER HIGGINS FROM POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY.—W. W. DRUMMOND, Chief Justice of Utah, has resigned, and Geary-like, fled from the Territory. He could not stand the ruffian despotism of Brigham Young, and the racialities and abominations of Mormonism. His letter of resignation, addressed to the U. S. Attorney General, giving his reasons for abandoning his post, has been published. He makes a strong case against Brigham and his brethren. How beautifully territorial squatter sovereignty works, under Democratic rule!—Ripley Bee.

A terrible accident occurred at Indianapolis on the 7th. A new steam boiler, which had lately put up in the State Sentinel office, and was being tried for the first time, exploded, killing instantly a young man named Hamer, and injuring five others badly. The east wall of the building was entirely blown down. The damage to the press, type, &c., is very heavy.

The Weather in Virginia.

Richmond, April 27. The Abingdon Democrat says, that for the week preceding Tuesday last, snow had fallen daily in Washington county. The fruit has been killed and vegetation was backward through the South-western part of the State. Many cattle were dying.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS AT THE SOUTH.—We have had since our last issue, a rainy, cold, and freezing weather. The fruit is hopelessly destroyed by the late severe frosts.—Columbian (Ala.) Union, 11th inst.

There was a severe frost here on the 5th, and a heavy frost on the 6th of this month. All fruit not previously killed was destroyed; the wheat crop is supposed to have been badly injured.—Columbian (Shelby co., Ala.) Union, 11th inst.

The Rome (Ga.) Courier says: On Monday morning last we had snow and sleet and ice. Monday was cold and windy, and Tuesday a heavy white frost. It is probable that most of the fruit is killed. It is thought that all the wheat that is jointed is also killed, but there is comparatively little so far advanced.

Flour Speculations.—Prospects of the Wheat Crop. The Cincinnati Gazette of Monday says: There is a continued active movement in the flour market, chiefly speculative, and prices favor sellers. The advance since Saturday is 5c. per bushel. There is also a strong speculative movement in St. Louis, at very low prices. It will be seen by reference to our market report in this column, that our currency is very high, compared with other markets. This movement is based, in part, upon the reported damage to the wheat crops. Upon this point dealers are quite sensitive—too much so, perhaps. The only State from which unfavorable reports have been confirmed, is Illinois, and there the Fall wheat is, where it is seriously damaged, being replaced by spring. From this State, Indiana and Kentucky, we hear flattering accounts. Generally the fields look well, and throughout, the breadth of land planted is much larger than in last year. At this time, we are pleased to be able to report a favorable prospect for a large crop of wheat than has ever been produced in the West. Other crops are not so good. The corn crop, however, has every indication to turn their lands to good account, and they are not permitting the favorable opportunity to pass unimproved.

A band of Sioux Indians made an attack on the white settlers at the Spirit Lake, Ia., on the 17th, and massacred a number. Fifteen of the settlers are reported missing.

THE MARKETS.

Hillsborough, April 29, 1857. FLOUR has advanced in the advance in the Cincinnati market. We now quote $3.25 to $3.50 by the wagon load, total $3.75 to $4.00.
